OSA's Labor Heroes of 2002

BRAND NEW ORGANIZERS

In a time of threat to civil service workers, a few labor leaders have provided new strength to our side. On this page are pictured the leaders who created two new labor unions and those who created two new subdivisions of OSA. All four units organized themselves and either joined with our union or asked OSA to provide Welfare Fund benefits for their members.

OSA is always honored to be asked to assist grassroots organizers, since they are the foundation of all labor strength.

The executive board and membership of the Organization of Staff Analysts offer congratulations to the dedicated activists who worked long and hard on behalf of their brothers and sisters. These organizers are our own New York City "labor heroes." They have done well.
