The Organization of Staff Analysts awards Donald Singer, President of the embattled Council of Supervisors and Administrators, the well-deserved title of Labor Hero. His recent arrest on behalf of his members demonstrates the principle of putting the needs of his brothers and sisters in Education above his own needs.

We support the members of CSA in their fight to maintain the due process system called tenure. We oppose the attempt of the Mayor, the Chancellor and the Board of Education to create patronage jobs at the top of every school in our City.

CSA is fighting for an honest system and for our children. We are proud to have this opportunity to celebrate the courageous fight of our brothers and sisters of the Council of Supervisors and Administrators and their embattled leadership.

OSA's Labor Hero of 1999
