ROUND ROBIN "GIFT GIVING"...

Dan Morgan said he has been retired for five years and by coming to OSARC meetings he has made a lot of new friends. He shared a wonderful photo of himself when he had hair. He looked great!

Yvonne Broughton sang "O Holy Night" for us as her gift of sharing. It was very beautiful.

May Engler said it has been a good year and she is grateful for her blessings.

Hank Mandel, who retired in 1989, announced he has set up his computer and now "prints" his own $15 bills. He has a special place where he uses them and gets his change in $6 bills. Great Joke!

Stanley Granat, who retired from the Board of Education in 1990, and his wife (she finally retired) went to England. He told a story of their travels ending with England is very expensive (no more cheap hotels.)

Gloria D'Jaha read a "Memo From God" which was interesting and humorous.

Jean Anmuth told three great jokes and passed out two more that she said were "slightly off color." We liked them.

Ida Chin also told a joke.

Bob Hershkowitz gave thanks for all he has.

Martha Masnyj wished everyone a "Happy Holiday". This was Martha's first meeting as a new retiree.

Rene Bash shared an Israeli chant with us that allowed everyone to participate. We all felt peaceful afterwards.

Margaret Jackson is grateful for being alive and for her improved health.

Louis Starkey is happy he retired but still gets up on the old schedule. He considers health a very important issue. He wishes everyone a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year. This is Louis' first meeting as a retiree.

Ken Burton has been playing pool and practicing hard trying to reach tournament class.

Beverly Freierman plays the mandolin and invited everyone to her orchestra rehearsals on Tuesday nights at Stuyvesant High School from 7-9P.M. She also visited the Martin Luther King, Jr. birthplace and museum. She highly recommends it.

Edna Riley read from a card that she felt was appropriate for the sense of friendship she feels with the OSARC group.

Elizabeth Borden read a poem from a package of poems that she gave to everyone.

Margaret Williams went willingly to a computer training course. Then she found out that she had to take a job. The job lasted three years, but now she's free again. She also shared a joke with us.

Rosalyn Jones read a poem describing her life with her cats.

Bernice Stephens said she was glad to be back at OSA and OSARC after a long illness. She was also thankful that both she and her mother are NYC retirees. Her mother retired in 1976.
